Dear Members,

To spell success in any sport, you need to possess 5 s's, speed, stamina, style and sportsmen spirit. Sportsmen spirit is, in a basic sense confirming to the rule of sports. It may also be considered as the will to go out win fairly or lose gracefully. Treating the people you play with and against, as you would like to be treated yourself, is defined as good sportsmanship. Keeping this in mind we arranged a fortnight of sport events for our members. Members in large number enjoyed and participated in all the events.

“Acchamillai, Acchamillai, Acchamenbadilaye
Icchaghadil ullorellam ethirthu ninra pothilum
Acchamillai, Acchamillai, Acchamenbadilaye”

By reading these lines we immediately remember our great Kavi Subramanya Bharathiar, a great poet and patriot of Tamil Nadu. SICA family paid homage to this great poet on 13.01.2013 Sunday, by celebrating Bharathiar Day.

Various Programmes were conducted - Our member's children performed a Ballet “Navarasam” based on Bharathiar song, which was appreciated and applauded by one and all. Power point presentation about Bharathiar's life history made the audience spell bound. Speech given on Bharathiar was also very informative. Two Gudu gudu pandies enthralled the audience with their “kurrichol”.

Pongal Pandigai was celebrated on the same day by preparing “Sarkarai Pongal” in Pongal Panai in a traditional way. Full size karumbukal were also offered to Sun God.

On 20th Jan. Cricket match held between President's team & Vice President's team at 54 Scheme. President's team won the match. Sports day on 26th Jan. was conducted at Sch. 54. Members with their families took part in all the events, there were sports events for Senior citizens also. Everybody enjoyed the day by taking part in all the games. Prizes were distributed at the end of the day.

27.01.2013 was a remarkable day for SICA – “ThiagarajaAradhana” was celebrated with great dedication and fervour. A group of SICA lady members under the guidance of Mrs. Srividya keerthivasan sang Pancharathna Keerthanai amidst great applause. Octogenarian, Mr.N.Srinivasan really made the audience spell bound by singing Thiagarajar songs. Senior citizen, Mrs. Saroja Natarajan also paid homage to Thiagarajar by singing songs. Last but not the least the audience were wonder struck by the melodious voice of Kumari. Kadhambari the youngest participant of the day.

We solicit donation for SICA Clinic from our members.

Health Camp – B.P. & Diabetes camp on 9th Feb. 2013 at SICA Clinic between 5.00 p.m. to 7.00 p.m.
